

Partners & staff!

We are pleased to offer you our independent & impartial advice, to help you maximise the value, return on investment & commercial advantage to be gained from technology

Is there more that you could be achieving from the use of IT and communications ?

Are you getting the full benefit from your existing application software and IT systems ?

Would you benefit from & welcome independent and impartial IT usage or acquisition advice ?

R&B are independent IT advisers, with a proven track record of helping legal practitioners to extract maximum value from information & communications technology. Since 1994, we've advised firms & organisations of every type, size & market situation.

Accordingly, we would like to take this opportunity, to offer you our proven services.

Typical assignments vary from situation assessments and achievement reviews to producing requests for tender and supplier selection and negotiations, i.e. anything to do with using and choosing IT systems !

For confidential, impartial and independent advice, further information and / or to discuss your particular situation and needs, please do feel free to call us.

Given our unique experience and knowledge of both the legal profession & legal IT, we would be confident that we can identify additional opportunities for you to maximise value. The most common topics on which we advise are : accounting, fee earner desktop, practice management, time recording, case management and client / matter database, as well as WP & diary, fax & e-mail, document production, knowledge management and marketing, intranets and the internet and, increasingly, the potential relevance or not of e-commerce to an organisation.

We await your expression of interest.

Kind regards, Yours sincerely, David Riggall MBCS

Totally satisfied with the IT advice which you gave to us...

Guest Walker & Co
John Guest – Senior partner.

He was objective and pulled no punches, which is exactly what we wanted... his advice & involvement was quite simply wonderful...

If, like us, your time is primarily dedicated to generating fees, as well as other aspects of the practice, e.g. marketing, IT, finance, etc., then the experience & knowledge of David Riggall, a proven legal IT consultant, should prove to be invaluable...

Neil Jones – IT partner @ John Budd & Co.

Provided us with what we consider to be an advantage over our competitors... efficiencies and economies which we could not have imagined... we consider that the money we spent .... repaid many times over...

Mark Tetley
Smith & Tetley.

Took the trouble to prepare... responded succinctly... it was enormously helpful to have someone with no axe to grind giving objective views...

Richard Arnold
IT partner – Wilson Browne.

Entirely satisfied with the assistance... no hesitation in recommending....

Oldham Rust & Jobson.

We chose... did not regret it... He listened to what we felt we needed....
